

YOU ARE INVITED:
InclusiveU Information Session for 2016/2017 Academic Year

The Taishoff Center for Inclusive Higher Education is pleased to invite you to an information session about InclusiveU, the initiative at Syracuse University that offers a comprehensive college experience for students with intellectual and developmental disabilities. At this 1-hour presentation geared towards MSC, Brokers, Community Agencies, Partners, and Families, you will be able to meet Taishoff Center Director Dr. Beth Myers, InclusiveU Director Bud Buckhout, and Assistant Director/Peer-to-Peer Coordinator Dee Katovitch, who will review the different InclusiveU programs, funding options and application process for this fall.

InclusiveU at Syracuse University offers:

- Non-credit certificate through University College
- Individualized coursework
- Person-centered planning
- Project SEARCH: professional internships
- Peer-to-Peer: Social and extracurricular activities

InclusiveU advocates for students with intellectual disabilities having options when they access higher education, so they can always find something that's right for them, in the place where they want to live, taking courses that matter to them and their career.

Date: Monday, March 28

Time: 3pm-4pm

Where: Syracuse University - Huntington Hall Commons

RSVP: taishoffcenter@syr.edu
