

InclusiveU Seminar Information

We're glad you've decided to take a seminar or seminars through InclusiveU!

Our weekly seminars are facilitated by InclusiveU staff and graduate assistants. Most seminars are offered in both fall and summer semesters, so if you cannot fit a seminar into your schedule, you will probably be able to sign up in the future.

Fall 2017 seminars will begin on Monday, September 11th, 2017. All seminars are held in room 320 Huntington Hall, unless otherwise noted.

Here are some important points of information:

- InclusiveU staff reserves the right to cap the number of openings in the seminar. If necessary, we will start a waiting list.
- Students who have not already taken a certain seminar will have priority in registration. If openings remain in the seminar, students may repeat the seminar as many times as they wish.
- If you need to miss a seminar, please text or email your instructor. Instructors will notify students by email if the seminar is cancelled for the day.
- All seminars are cancelled for the day if
  - a. The Syracuse City School District is closed due to inclement weather.
  - b. Syracuse University is closed
- If a student needs communication support or support for personal/safety needs, support staff will be welcome in the seminar room during instruction. However, Instructors have the right to determine the role of staff in the seminars. Sometimes, due to space limitations, staff may be asked to wait in a nearby location until the seminar is over. All instructors are either certified teachers or have experience facilitating group discussions and we LOVE teaching InclusiveU students!
- There will be no regular seminars held during the weeks of November 13-17 and November 20-24.
- The last week of seminars is December 4-8.
