SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

The annual State of the Art (SOTA) Conference attracts over 300 researchers, program staff, parents, and self-advocates with opportunities to present and learn about the latest research and practices in the field of inclusive higher education. Attendees are given ample opportunities to network and attend talks, panels, and group discussions that detail effective practices, innovative approaches, and the latest research and findings by leaders in the field.

The Student Leadership Conference is a parallel conference that brings current and future college students into the conversation. We also host a national inclusive college fair, free to all families and students who want to learn about inclusive higher education options.

YOUR SPONSORSHIP

By participating as a sponsor, you are promoting opportunities for inclusive postsecondary education for students with intellectual disability (ID) and expanding opportunities for students, families, educators, and policymakers. By defraying the costs of the conference, sponsors make the experience accessible to a wider range of attendees. One of the ways the SOTA Conference allocates sponsorship funding is by providing attendance scholarships to self-advocates and their families on a first-come, first-served basis. Additional sponsorship funding allows SOTA to keep costs down for attendees who include students, advocates, educators, and staff members of non-profit programs and organizations.

SPONSORSHIP BENEFITS

All Sponsors of the 2024 SOTA Conference will receive the following benefits. Additional benefits are listed under the specific sponsorship levels.

- Placement of logo on conference materials, website, and e-blasts (logo size varies based on sponsorship level)
- Digital banner on the mobile conference application (Whova)
- Complimentary registrations for your organization (unused registrations can be donated as attendance scholarships)
- Verbal acknowledgment during the conference
- Option to distribute a flyer, brochure, or branded giveaway to attendees
